Travel.

Vrnjačka Banja is 230km south-west of Belgrade, they are connected with good traffic routes - E5 highway Belgrade-Kruševac and the regional road Kruševac-Vrnjačka Banja.

The closest airport is the airport “Nikola Tesla” in Belgrade.

Our advice is to change money to dinars at the airport so that you can pay your bus tickets. At the exit from the airport there are mini buses going each 20 minutes to the Belgrade city center (marked “Arrivals”), and have to walk across the park. The ticket costs about 3 EUR and may be paid to the driver.

You must purchase the ticket at the counters (at the building marked “Departures”). Tickets cost about 10 EUR, and the trip to Vrtnjačka Banja lasts about 3 hours. Many buses go from Belgrade to Vrtnjačka Banja (6:00, 7:30, 9:00, 9:20, 12:00, 12:30,...).
